Verse 1

It's so hard to find the meaning
Hard to see the truth
Cause I been looking for the answers
From everyone but you
You are all I need
You are all my reasons
Only you explain the mystery
Of it all

Chorus

I will trust in you with all my heart
All my heart

Verse 2

I've been wise in my own eyes
Loosing sight of you
Climbed the rough side of a mountain
That you would rather move
The future's far from here
I can't see your purpose
But you've always been so good to me

Chorus

Bridge

Lord I'm trusting in your promise
It's the only thing I have
It's the only thing I know to do
And I'm resting in the knowledge that you'll keep me in your hands
So I'm reaching out my hands to you
I'm leaning not on my Own understanding
Teach me to follow you
In all my ways
